A Knight Without a Horse

Episode 9

The others are hell.

[Heb.] Our problem is the "goyim," the Gentiles, the non-Jews. - [Heb.] Our problem now is Margaret.

How can we be sure she has that book, Isaac?

The information I have, Jacob, was confirmed.

Dr. Edward, her husband, smuggled the book from Russia to Egypt.

[Heb.] What a disaster! What a disaster! It's a disaster!

But how can it be? Our people in Russia informed us that all the copies of the book [in Heb]

"The Protocols of the Elders of Zion" were collected from the market.

It's a second edition, Benjamin.

Sergei Nilus, the villain, reprinted it in 1905, last year.

Within two days, all the copies disappeared from the market.

Obviously those are smuggled copies.

All right, what can Margaret do with this book?

The English know what's in it.

But the fear is that if the book is published here in Egypt, many more problems will be caused for us than in Russia, and perhaps this will thwart our plans.

Our people in Egypt can spread rumors that this book is a forgery.

The problem is that someone can correlate the content of the book with what we are doing, and people will surely believe it.

[Heb.] What shall we do?! What can be done?

Meet with Margaret and use her interests with us. Maybe she will settle for reading the book, and you will be able to take the book from her.

[Heb.] And if she denies it, or refuses?

If she denies or refuses, she will cause herself problems that she cannot handle.

Episode 18

The racist Zionist movement is a movement that set up a plan a long time ago, even before the birth [of Jesus] - a Zionist invasion of the countries of the world by peaceful means.

The serpent is their loathsome symbol. They drew a map for this serpent.

According to this map, the serpent moves, coils, and binds the countries of the world, enslaving them in hellish ways. These ways are economic invasion and attrition of the [countries'] strength, using all means of violence and deception.

The Zionist plan is, of course, very carefully planned, so they can disseminate wantonness, alcohol, abomination, and corruption among the youth of the world. You don't say! A conspiracy from before Christian Era. We never heard of these protocols. What was the matter with our forefathers? Why didn't they warn us?

Since we didn't know about this plan, how could we tell it to those after us?

Go on, go on Hafez.

The fellow who translated doesn't know much. I need to meet with the countess, as she translates into English, I write in Arabic.

All right, but go on with the story about this serpent.

The serpent is the Zionist symbol, whose progress is drawn on the map, step by step.

The first step was in Europe in 429 BC, in Greece, in the era of Pericles. Of course, the Zionist serpent caused the loss of this country. The second step was in 69 BC, in Rome, during the era of the Emperor Augustus. The third step was in 1552, in Madrid, in the era of Charles V. The fourth step was in Paris, in 1790, in the era of Louis XVI. The fifth step was in London in 1814, after the fall of Napoleon. The sixth step was in Berlin after the Franco-Russian war, and the seventh in Petersburg in 1881.

The Zionist serpent passed through all these countries, and their constitutional foundation was undermined. Even England and Germany - despite their strength - the Zionist serpent crossed their economic border, until it completed the invasion to Russia in 1905. If you look at the map, you see that this serpent left no trace of its path, except for some arrows pointing to Moscow, Kiev, and Odessa, and another arrow pointing to the U.S.A.

That is, the serpent still has not reached our countries?

No. All the serpent's twisting and coiling are so that ultimately the serpent's head will swallow our countries.

This is what we will know when we finish the translation of the book. There are 24 protocols, and the countess told me that there is a part that has not yet come true. We need to know what has not yet come true in order to fight it.

Give us the document, Hafez, so we can print and distribute copies.

No, I will print it and then we will convene.

Just as they conceal their conspiracy, we must, temporarily, hide what we have learned.

I will miss these meetings. But I must know how far the Zionist serpent will reach. To Palestine. I will send you the rest of the translation.

Episode 19

Go on.

Our mission is to recruit these people to serve us. We will ride on their backs, and direct them as we wish and exploit their sciences and talents in our favor. We must marry our beautiful daughters to kings and leaders, and put our sons in the various religions.

What do you say, Sheikh Hamed?

What do I care about these beautiful girls!? Go on.

Thus, we will have the decisive word in the countries and governments. We will stir up discord among them and put fear into them, and they will fight each other. Thus, we will sow the seeds of discord between them, in all areas of personal and national life, by disseminating religious fanaticism and tribalism, and we will instigate conflict and create disagreement among the members of one religion. We will increase racist fanaticism and any single government will not find support from its neighbors when it asks for help against us, because every one of them will think that each act against us will bring disaster upon it.

These things are happening today. Go on.

Listen to this. The fighting between us and them will be dynamic, such as the world has never seen. It will be too late for the geniuses because what motivates the countries of the world and rules them will be the power in our hands- and that is gold. By means of this gold, we will exhaust the ruling powers across the world.

We will establish a supreme world government and rule the entire world with rigorous organization. When we control it, we will rule the world.

What's this? What's going on, Sheikh Hamed? The people who wrote these things are crazy.

Who brought you this harmful document, oh Sheikh Hamed?

Allah bless him and protect him- The fox!

Episode 36

It doesn't matter when. That's a stupid question. What's more important is how.

What is the point of doing something tomorrow without planning and knowing what we will do in another year? That's how the other people think. But we plan to reach something specific. We are examining how to get there. Ultimately, we know when.

[Heb.] We achieved a great victory. We achieved a tremendous victory when we had our English friend Moses Gaster concentrate on Mark Sykes, the British deputy war secretary.

[Heb.] We are on the right path. We are going on the right path. Yes, we are on the right path. What's important is that Sykes publicly admitted: "Moses Gaster made me a supporter of Zionism."

[Heb.] I support this process. Following all the new faces in politics or sensitive positions, and forming friendships at particular times. Like the results we will obtain from the agreement between Mark Sykes and the French foreign minister Georges Picot.

We were all worried by France's attempts to keep Palestine for itself, but our colleagues managed to leave Palestine in the hands of the English.

The Sykes-Picot agreement divided the Ottoman inheritance, but our work must begin from now, and aggressively - in dividing Palestine itself.

Calm down. Jabotinsky is in London to establish a new Jewish brigade. And our sons, Ben-Gurion and Ben-Zvi, have started, in America, training the first Jewish brigade. Trumpeldor went to Russia after the Mule Drivers' Brigade returned from the battle of Gallipoli. Now, he is establishing an army of 75,000-100,000 Jews to invade Palestine by way of the Caucasus.

Britain agreed to the establishment of the Jewish brigade, and appointed Col. John Patterson to command it.

Wasn't this John Patterson commander of the Mule Drivers Brigade?

Yes. [Heb.] Actually, Jabotinsky was right to oppose the British command of the Jewish Mule Drivers' Brigade, because he saw it as humiliation.

[Heb.] Actually, it was terrible, and they returned defeated.

Never mind. Then, we wanted to establish the core of the first brigade of the Jewish army. There is no problem in starting with mules.

No, there's still a more important problem. The foundations of establishing a sovereign nation are organization and military power, and these we have begun to obtain. The real problem is that what we're missing to establish this nation is land. When will we get our hands on the land of Palestine and take it over?

Haven't we said that we aren't asking when but how?

The difference between us and other peoples is that they do not learn from the past. They do not learn their lesson. They forget.

And that is our advantage.

Certainly, even a little incident from 1,000 years ago - we keep in mind before we take a single step.

So we must be careful with Hafez, and not repeat the many tragedies that happened to us in the past.

Why are you waiting for this Hafez? How is it that our people are incapable of getting their hands on him?

My friends, many ideas from the translated "Protocols" appeared in the hands of some people, particularly the Association for the Struggle Against Zionism.

This is no ordinary association. I received information that it is comprised of Palestinian students attending Al-Azhar University. And therein lies the danger. Don't scare us with this subject, Elijah. In all honesty, we don't know how to act, how to succeed, unless we have enemies.

And by means of our secret ideas and our plans. This holds us back.

I agree with Simon. To benefit from the past and from the mistakes of others, we must remember that our plans in the U.S. went badly wrong only because someone exposed them.

It wasn't just anyone. It was the American president (sic) Benjamin Franklin, and his attack on and his hostility to us (Jews). It was he who exposed us at the public convention for the declaration of the American constitution in 1789. Notice, please, how long it has been since then.

You want to say that this Hafez is more dangerous than a U.S. president?!

It doesn't go by positions, Eliezer. Hafez can hold us back by publishing the "Protocols."

This Benjamin was impudent. Pardon me, brother Benjamin. He said clear, hostile things when talking to his people. He said clearly: "Wherever the Jews settle, you will find that they weaken the will of the people and undermine the morality of fair trade. They establish a government within a government that acts to strangle the nation, and if the Jews are not prevented by the constitution from immigrating to the US, within less than a century they will stream into this land in tremendous numbers that will enable them to control us and destroy us."

Episode 41

A great victory! A great victory!

My friends, I am going to tell you the great tidings before Elijah, Aaron, and Simon arrive.

[Heb.] At this moment! At this moment, the headquarters of the Association for Struggle Against Zionism were blown up, so that the Palestinians and Egyptians will expunge the word "resistance" from their dictionary!

Anyone who obstructs our goals denies us life... We must deny their lives!

This is our right!

Isaac! It's over. Congratulations! Everything is destroyed!

L'Chayim! L'Chayim! L'Chayim!
